

RENO EVENING GAZETTE.

Washoe County Official Press.

RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA.
MONDAY.....MARCH 4, 1878.

Reno to Chico.

The attention of Assemblyman Whitlock, of California, having been called to our articles upon the mail route question, he sends us a copy of Assembly Joint Resolution No. 40, of which the following is a copy:

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives be requested, to use all honorable means in their power to have a tri-weekly mail route established, starting at Reno, in the State of Nevada, and running thence by way of Summit, Red Clover, Taylorville, Greenville, Prattville, and to Chico, in Butte County, California.

Resolved, That his Excellency, the Governor, be requested to forward a copy of the above resolution to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Mr. Whitlock has consulted the best interests of Plumas and Sierra counties in offering the above resolutions, and the California Legislature will do well to send it on without delay. If supplemented by a simple statement of the natural road facilities which exist between Reno and Plumas, the department can not fail to grant the request and establish the route. The citizens of Plumas and Sierra counties have a right to the proposed route and it will, through Reno, insure their connection at all times, with the trans-continental channel of trade and communication.

Some one sends us a copy of the Syracuse (N. Y.) Standard in which we find the following notice of a young lady whom it has been our fortune to know for some years:

Miss Ivy Wandesforde, an exquisite blonde, with a voice of angelic purity, filled her engagement in the true artist's style, and towards the close of the evening gave a pretty, pathetic Scotch ballad "The Maid of Dun-dee," with an elegant simplicity and sweetness that charmed her hearers, and, we might say—admired.

We also learn that there is in the East an organized movement against the existing bankrupt laws, and Congress will be asked to repeal them. The arguments seem to bear upon the question very forcibly, and it is urged that similar laws have been repealed before, because they were hurtful.

England is very uneasy. Her interests demanded that she should occupy the Porte's place or maintain him against the Russians. It is now seen that she allowed the proper time to slip by, and must now fight alone if at all. Germany is satisfied with the Russian terms, and Gortschakoff will throw a bone or two over into Austria so that Andraszy shall have nothing to fight about. That being done England will be left to conciliate herself, while the Russian army compels Turkey to yield unconditionally. The feeling in Russia seems to favor a war with England.

SEND ON YOUR SPECIMENS.—The following letter explains itself:

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 26, 1878.
DEAR SIR: Will you please oblige the Committee on Minerals in sending by Wells, Fargo & Co's express, marked Mineral Department, Paris Exposition, Room 18, Safe Deposit Building, San Francisco, California, a few nice specimens for the Paris Exposition. Any mineral, rich curious or wonderful, is desired. Write name and locality, and put with each sample. Respectfully,

A. B. PAUL,
Chairman Committee.

Those who have specimens to send should not delay.

Tom Scott has scored an important victory for the Texas Pacific Railroad scheme. The House Committee to which it was referred decided yesterday to report the Texas Pacific Bill with favorable recommendation that it pass. It was understood, however, that members of the Committee might take any position in regard to the bill when it came before the House, regardless of their votes in Committee. And this last part bothers us.

To-day is the one hundredth anniversary of Robert Emmet, a name which brings every honest Irishman to a memorial shrine, and recalls to all lovers of genius a life which earned immortal fame in three and twenty years. Robert Emmet never died, and while the work of his short life belongs to the Emerald Isle, the example of his devotion and manhood has been inherited by all mankind.

Here is a dose prepared by Mighels, and we think it might do some good if taken by some of our Reno would-be journalists:

"Bore, a—A person or thing that worries by ceaseless repetition, dullness or stupidity. — Webster Un-bridged.

One of the greatest pleasures in life is to come down town on a beautiful Spring morning and encounter the newspaper critic. You have been rushing around for items all day and training with night owls until midnight, you are dissatisfied with yourself and are satisfied that you haven't made it. You feel as if the world was in combination against you, and wonder how in the development of things you are going to pull through the day. The fiend meets you with a smiling countenance and remarks pleasantly and with the greatest possible suavity in mode: "You had rather a thin paper this morning; wish you fellows would pick up something interesting." We fire our cast steel query at him in reply, "What do you know?" Of course he don't know anything; he never does, or he couldn't be a first-class critic. He is an unmitigated, repetitive peripatetic, unconscionable, unappreciative bore.

Ex-United States Senator, Benjamin F. Wade, died at Jefferson, Ohio, Saturday March 2nd. The deceased statesman had reached the age of seventy-seven, and risen from the station of a country schoolmaster, to that of President pro tempore of the United States Senate. His views were always radical and firmly set, he never compromised with an opposing belief and was in the main right in each position which he assumed. His history is identified with that of his country, and his life will be written by the historian who tells how a few great statesmen abolished slavery and vindicated America's right to call herself "land of the free."

Badges made from canon captured in the Mexican war have been received by the following persons in Virginia City, veterans of the memorable struggle: Charles Norris, of the Third Kentucky Infantry; John Rinehart, of the Third Artillery; William Reese, of the First Pennsylvania Infantry, and Stephen P. Scaniker, of the First Missouri Cavalry. Mr. Scaniker is now Commander of the Mexican War Veterans of Nevada. The badges are to be seen in the show windows of the jewelry stores of M. M. Frederick and William Manning, South C. Street—Exchange.

Washoe county has some Mexican veterans, and if they have medals coming they should look after the same.

Canada does not feel so well as she did last week, for now it is declared that in case of war England will enlist 10,000 Canadians. If that does not intimidate Russia, then the next game which sweeps from the East will bring the clash, etc.

Paul de Cassagnac has added another notch to his sword hilt. One Representative Thomson having dared to have an opinion adverse to the noted duelist, a meeting was arranged, and Thompson ceased to have opinions then and there.

Mollie McCarthy beat Jake in the two mile and repeat, at Sacramento, without any trouble whatever. The time was slow; 3:45 1/2, 3:28 1/2, and there was no doubt of the ability of Mollie to lower the time by several seconds. Jake is a good horse, but when he gets in company with that little queen he must come sooner than 38. Mollie is, without doubt, one of the best race mares now on the turf.

An official order has just been issued from the Postoffice Department discontinuing the Postoffice at Hunter, in White Pine county.

Mr. N. C. Fassett has resigned the superintendency of the King Company and departs for San Francisco in a few days.

The Tybo Sun devotes this clever paragraph to a gentleman who enjoys a very extended acquaintance, the same being unexceptionally favorable in this community: "Hon. J. T. Bell, the popular Representative from this county, is spoken of by several papers in the West for Lieutenant Governor on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Bell is well and favorably known, and has a first-rate record. All who know him have a high opinion of his merits. The Democrats could do no better than nominate him; he has a host of friends in this section and would make a good run."

REMOVAL.—Yankee Dodge has removed to the store formerly occupied by Miss Brown & Hickey, where he will be pleased to see his friends and patrons. He will keep constantly on hand a general assortment of Yankee notions and fancy goods, and sell them cheaper than any other house in Reno. We will have an auction sale every Saturday evening. Be sure and give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. Don't forget the place, opposite the Reno Opera House, Virginia street.

DRESS MAKING.—Mrs. E. F. Padock, an experienced dressmaker, solicits the patronage of the ladies of Reno and vicinity, at the residence of Mrs. McLemore, corner of Virginia and Fifth streets.

Howe, the famous British animal painter, was a straightforward, bluff, kind of man, laying himself open, in his brusque, to complaints for which he cared nothing. On one occasion Howe's bell rang, and the servant being out, the artist answered the door himself. A gentleman there presented himself as a person of great dignity and importance, and eyeing Mr. Howe with a mixture of inquiry and contempt, asked, "Are you Mr. Howe, the Brute painter?" "Yes sir," answered Howe, very blandly, "yes sir; I fancy you will be wanting your portrait taken—step in."

A Lieutenant of the Russian Navy has recently patented a substance for the preservation of metals. It bids fair to be very successful, and has, after a long series of experiments, been adopted by the Ministry of Marine in that country. By applying this material to the surface to be protected, and then covering it with a coat of ordinary paint, it becomes absolutely insensible to moisture.

Stanley says the African cannibals have no baby shows. In fact, the babies have no show at all there.

JUST ARRIVED.—800 pounds fresh candy, all kinds, warranted free from all injurious coloring. Call and see it at W. H. Holmes & Co's., two doors east of Postoffice. 2-9-1m.

NEW COMERS.—Tandy & Cook respectfully inform the citizens of Reno that they have leased the Budden photograph gallery for a short time, and will be pleased to receive the patronage of all who are aiming to get first class pictures of themselves. We guarantee our work to be equal in tone and finish to that produced at the first galleries of San Francisco. We will remain in Reno but a few weeks, and feel confident that we will satisfy all who may favor us with their patronage during that time. Respectfully, 1-3-1f TANDY & COOK.

The National Gold Medal was awarded to Bradley & Rulofson for the best Photographs in the United States, and the Vienna Medal for the best in the world. 429 Montgomery Street, San Francisco.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Jottings.

The public school teachers last Saturday received their months pay. No excitement noticeable to-day in trade circles in consequence thereof.

The Chinamen from Wadsworth tried for grand larceny in the District Court, and upon whose guilt the jury disagreed, will be tried again at the next term of Court which begins in April.

The motion for a new trial in the Gammon-Russell case, was denied in the District Court on Saturday, and costs relaxed. A similar case was exercised in the Nathan vs. C. P. R. R. case.

There will be no session of the District Court until Monday March 18th.

The wind yesterday afternoon and last night made times lively for board fences, etc. A number of fences bear tangible evidence to-day of entire prostration as well as general delinquency.

Justice Richardson, Dr. Dawson and Hank Rhodes are in Virginia City to-day as witnesses in the case of Ah Breen, Chief of Police for the Comstock.

Fireman's meeting this evening.

Saturday night 121 bars of Bonanza ballion passed through here to San Francisco. Of this amount 85 bars, valued at $347,529 93 were from the California, and 36 from the Com Virginia, valued at $136,469 98.

The local of the Virginia Chronicle had Sessions' harness cut while he was attending the Baptist Concert, where Adah Richmond was giving one of her variety house pickups. What manner of people does the reporter of the Chronicle take us for.

Capt. B. Tuttle, a lecturer on the Polar Seas, etc. is in town to-day. If the weather remains warm and pleasant, he may yet lecture to a Reno audience.

The Reno Lyceum will hold forth to-morrow night without fail. There will be no court to preclude the orators from assembling. Fun is anticipated. Let it come.

The Schively furnace will be fired up this evening, but no ore will be put in until to-morrow. Everyone is interested in the success of this furnace. If it proves what its devisers assert and firmly believe, Washoe county has a few bonanzas herself.

By a vote of 23 to 15, the citizens of Hufaker school district have resolved to tax themselves $1500 for the purpose of building a new school house. Reno should follow suit.

Mr. Isaacs, of the firm of Grey & Isaacs, returned last night from a two months' visit to New York and other cities and town of the Eastern States. He bears marks of having been well treated and speaks, of course, in glowing terms of the royal good trip he had, and how he feasted upon the numerous table delicacies of his civilized friends.

The Odd Fellows are talking about a grand excursion to San Francisco the 20th of next month. That is the time of their anniversary.

Those desirous of obtaining a complete set of bar fixtures, all nearly new, will do well to enquire at this office.

A mush social will be held at the Methodist Church next Wednesday evening.

Smith is having the Academy of Music painted. The outside will be of light yellow or more nearly a cream color, and the inside of White. More extravagance on the part of Richard.

VISITOR.—E. J. Parkinson, of the Carson Tribune, paid his respects to Reno yesterday. Edward is a gallant young man, but very sly. We don't know whether he came to interview Rover's ghost, or if his object was a courting expedition. His conduct on the holy Sabbath is decidedly suspicious, and the fact is he has all the young men of Reno jealous. Gentle lady heed not that dark eyed beauty. "He is a bold bad man." We were out when he called in our office. Ed. come again.

SAGE BRUSH.—It is promised that as much as 2000 acres of sage-brush land will be reclaimed during the present year along the Comstock. If we have any reasonable luck, we shall multiply that amount by 50 for Washoe during '78.

QUEER.—Collection days are tough on Christians. Newspaper men even find it exceedingly difficult to gather in a few shekels. Where, then, does the church member stand? We have given puffs and raised our hats to long-standing creditors, and yet they plead poverty regularly on the first of the month. Although they wear good clothes, attend church fairs, theaters, variety entertainments, and feast on the fat of the land, Monday rolls around and he "stands off" in a manner that would touch the deepest sympathies of our heart if it were not that he had done so twenty times before. We step into the place of business of an old patron with a four-dollar to present; he hands us one of five dollars against the office. Now how does a man feel under these circumstances? Can he steal up to the office with elastic step and a heart overflowing with joy? Can he sit down and write a humorous article, or one into which he "throws himself" for a "leader"? We'll not apologise, but you understand the situation.

COUNTY FINANCES.—From Auditor J. B. Williams' statement of County finances to the Board of County Commissioners we glean the following facts. Amount of money in the county Treasury January 31st, $31,944 84. Receipts during the month of February, $4,597 12. Amount paid out during the past month, $4,734 21. Cash in Treasury February 28th, $31,807 75. Of this last amount there is in the general fund $3,538 53. Contingent fund $3,333 28.

DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS.—District Attorney Cain requests us to state that he will on the 10th instant file complaint against all delinquent taxpayers. Of course this means actual suit commenced against all those who have not as yet paid their taxes. By calling upon him and paying delinquent taxes further costs than those already accrued will be saved. Delinquents, walk up and settle.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A temperance political meeting will be held this evening at the Baptist Church. The object, as we gather it is to organize a club whose members shall be temperance men, and who shall use their united influence to secure the nomination of temperance candidates to office, or at least those in favor of temperance principles.

SHADE TREES.—The Suto Independent says that over 2000 shade trees will be planted in Suto during the coming month. Then we advise the Independent to hand to probable purchasers the following address. Arlington Avenue Nurseries, Reno, Nevada, R. P. Chapin, the boss, has just the trees needed in Suto, and can guarantee satisfaction.

BULL'S HEAD.—We notice that Henry Bereman, well and favorably known in Reno, has, with two associates, purchased the Bull's Head Market, in Virginia City. The new firm promises to furnish the best of meats at reasonable rates, and what Henry promises may be relied on.

FOR SALE.—A complete set of first-class bar fixtures, including tables, chairs, and a fine counter set. Apply at this office.

At Osburn & Shoemaker's drugstore, prescriptions—at prices to suit the times—are prepared at all hours of the day and night by a regular graduate of a college of Pharmacy. 2-13ff.

German Prunes, at Holmes & Co's. 3-2-1m.

CARD OF THANKS.—We, the undersigned, wish to tender our thanks to Mr. J. A. Brunsey, State Agent, and Mr. James H. Marshall, City Agent of the Home Mutual Fire Insurance Company of San Francisco, for the highly satisfactory and unprecedented manner in which the representatives of the above named Company have settled their portion of the loss which we sustained at the late fire on Frieble's corner. We take great pleasure in recommending the Home Mutual Insurance Company to the insuring public for honest, square, and high-toned dealing. (Carson Appeal, Jan. 26, 1878.)

INSURE in the Home Mutual. If your property is destroyed by fire and you are fortunate enough to hold one of our policies, your money is ready and paid when you most need it. No litigation or trouble. ALLEN C. BRADY, Agent. Reno, Jan. 26, 1878-4f.

AN CHOUVEY.—District Attorney F. V. Drake and Police Bradley and Simpson, of Virginia City, were in town yesterday. Ah Chouvey was duly interviewed, and several white men questioned as to the Celestials identity. Chouvey was found by reason of certain markings on his forearm to be the veritable Chinaman sought. Chouvey had also to further disguise himself placed a plug of wood in one nostril. Those who had seen him said, "Yes that looks like Chouvey," but his nose is not that of Chouvey's. Closer examination produced the reason of this nasal deformity. He would never been captured but for the fact that members of his own company informed the officers as to his probable whereabouts.

A GENTLE LOVER SEES ROVER'S GHOST.—Parkinson, of the Tribune, got a little excited the other day, and while in an agitated frame of mind, had an interview with Rover's ghost. Edward contemplated a visit to Reno and as it was then Saturday evening, the time was near at hand for his departure. The charms of Capital life began to fade, and his thought in day-dream beauty wandered to the riverside town. He knew that when last here he had witnessed the execution of Rover, now he had a far different purpose in view. Pressed with these thoughts he got poor Rover's spirit materialized, and frightened our county officials. Mr. S. A. Mann was in a horrible fright, and had buckled on his armor and stood ready to fire the ghost out. The others were in fever of excitement and all the talk at the Court House was "have you seen Rover's ghost?" Edward becalm your nerves. Our county officials are entirely ignorant of the where abouts or conduct of Rover's spirit. We would suggest that we let the departed rest from their labors, for their work has been done, and neither the knight of the pen nor Mrs. Bowers, can recall his spirit to the scene of his recent trials.

"What will the present year bring forth?" asks an exchange. Bring Fourth of July, of course.

Why is the money you are in the habit of giving to the poor like a new born babe? Because it's precious little. It is dangerous for one to climb his family tree too high, for he is very apt to get among dead and decayed branches.

"An' sure, it's nisy enough to build a chimney," said O'Rourke: "ye howld one brick up an' just slip another one under it."

Found—"I meant to have told you of that hole," said a gentleman to his friend, who walking in his garden, stumbled into a pit of water. "No matter," said his friend, "I have found it."

Mike was asked if he believed in second love. "Faith, an' I do," said he. If you have a pound of sugar, isn't it water? And when that is gone don't you want another, and isn't that swate, too?"

"Young man, what's the price of this silk?" asked a deaf old lady. "Seven shillings," was the reply. "Seven shillings!" exclaimed she. "I'll give you thirteen." "Seven shillings, ma'am, is the price of the silk," replied the honest shopman. "Oh, seven shillings!" rejoined the lady sharply. "I'll give you five."

A copy of the Cardiff Mail informs us that much bad blood has been stirred up among the Welsh newspapers by the discussion upon the meaning of the word 'Llawfairwyllygertysillogogoch.' Are there any Welshmen in this vicinity who have sufficient etymological lore to enable them to throw light on this simple and unpretending expression?"

WATCHES!! JEWELRY!!

ROMAINE GOLD.

SO EXTENSIVELY WORN IN PARIS. So first discovered in 1870, by the celebrated French chemist, M. de Dainje, who manufactured it into jewelry, and for five years sold it to the leading jewellers of Paris for $10,000,000. In 1875, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewellers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing Romaine Gold Jewelry and Watches. With this immense capital and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewelry at less than any other firm. The gold, and of a quality and color which makes it impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

We have secured the exclusive agency of the United States and Canada, for the sale of all goods manufactured from this metal, and in order to introduce them in the most speedy manner have put up assorted sample lots as given below, which we will sell at one-tenth the retail value until January 1st, 1878. Read the list.
